

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MINNESOTA

---

UNITED STATES SECURITIES
AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION,

Court File No. 21-cv-1445 (DSD/ECW)

Plaintiff,

v.

MARK A. MILLER, SAEID
JABERIAN, and CHRISTOPHER
RAJKARAN,

MOTION FOR PERMISSION FOR DEFENDANT MILLER TO APPEAR VIRTUALLY

Defendants.

The Defendant, Mark Miller, by and through his attorney, moves the Court for an order allowing him to appear at the motion hearing in this matter by telephone. Miller lives over two hours north of the Twin Cities. He reports the cost of driving to Minneapolis and unpaid time away from his work are significant enough that he asks to appear and participate in the hearing by phone. If the Court agrees and prefers a different method, he can appear by remote conference technology.

Local Rule 7.3 (a) states that the Court may conduct any civil proceeding virtually by telephone or video. Miller respectfully asks the Court to allow him to save the time and expense of appearing in this matter. Counsel will work with the Court's staff to set up the appearance if the request is granted. Counsel for Miller believes the Plaintiff will likely object to this request based on earlier requests of the same nature.
